Subject: Request for issuance of promotion orders from JTO to SDE (T) under SCF quota for left out cases around 216 ST & 58 SC candidates separately with notional seniority - regarding.

Reference: (I) BSNLCO Order No. 2 -3/2018-Pers dated 15.6.2018
(II) SEWA BSNLCHQ/2018-20 dated 04.07.2018
(III) SEWA BSNLCHQ/2018-20 dated 24.07.2018

Respected Sir,

We would like to draw your kind attention towards the promotion orders issued vide BSNLCO letter dated 15.6.2018, referred at (I) above, from JTO to SDE (T) under SCF quota.

While issuing promotion orders from JTO to SDE (T) under SCF quota, Pers. Cell did not comply with the constitutional provisions / DoPT guidelines leaving the 216 ST & 58 SC vacancies unfilled as per reservation roster despite availability of SC/ST candidates. For example, in case of ST category, out of 2855 candidates only 4 ST candidates were promoted in this list blatantly violating the rules of reservation at that point of time by Pers.

Soon after issuance of these promotion orders, we took the issue with BSNL Management and represented the matter in writing also. We were assured to promote these SC/ST candidates with notional seniority & fill up all the vacancies of SC/ST and also informed us that to this effect, Pers. Cell had already taken approval of the competent authority while issuing these promotion orders dated 15.6.2020. But the matter could not proceed further as soon after issuance of these promotion orders the matter again became sub-judice.

Now there is no legal hurdle and BSNL Management is considering the promotion from JTO to SDE, so we sincerely appeal that the promotion orders from JTO to SDE (T) under SCF quota be issued separately for these left out 216 ST & 58 SC candidates with notional seniority.

With kind regards,

Sincerely yours

N D Ram
